

HEALING: Community collaboration in response to children affected by violence

Monday, April 19, 2010

8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

THE PARKE HOTEL &
CONFERENCE CENTER

1413 LESLIE DRIVE
BLOOMINGTON, IL
61704

Sponsored by:

ABC Counseling & Family Services
McLean County Child Protection Network
Prairie State Legal Services, Inc.
Illinois State University School of Social Work
McLean County Bar Association
Prevent Child Abuse—Illinois

Local agencies gather in a collaborative effort to help educate on working with children affected by violence. Learn about therapeutic interventions when working with children affected by sexual abuse; hearsay exceptions and the child witness in court; the forensic interview process; the long-term effects of domestic and sexual violence on children and the support of adult survivors. This day features a special presentation by Dr. Diane Zosky of Illinois State University's School of Social Work, "The Silent Victims: Children Who Witness Violence." Join us also for a discussion by Bloomington-Normal native, Joshua Phillips, as he speaks about activism against sexual violence and his book, 1,800 Miles: Striving to End Sexual Violence, One Step at a Time.

Presenters Include:

ABC Counseling & Family Services
Multi-Disciplinary Team of the Children's Advocacy Center
Dr. Diane Zosky, Illinois State University School of Social Work
